Welcome
Future Freshman!

LOURDES ACADEMY
Prepared for College. Prepared for Good!™
Why Lourdes Academy?

Mr. Mikesell & Mr. Tyriver

100% of Lourdes Academy students graduate, with 96% going on to college.

5 WIAA Scholar Athletes in the past 7 years; more than any other school statewide during that time period.

75 service hours needed to graduate, teaching the importance of servant leadership.

497 college credits earned by 2019 graduates while attending high school, saving approximately $295,200 in college tuition.

(Also may be taken as an Honors course. All students are originally scheduled in the regular classes and switched into Honors once the syllabus is read and honors contract is signed within the first 3 days of school.)

All freshmen need to have a total of 8 credits, therefore you will need to choose 2 additional credits. It is possible that the courses you prefer may not be available or fit into your schedule, so also choose 2 "alternate" courses. Please list both your choices and alternates in order of priority.

Typical freshman elective selection is a World Language (either Spanish or German) and a Fine Arts (Band, Choir, Art I or Exploring Art).
